

Dana Jenkins-Krind, Esq.
Director / Legal Reviews and Remedies

- Over 13 years of mortgage banking legal experience in all areas of regulatory mortgage compliance.
- Former Compliance Manager with a publicly traded, national lender; prepared regulatory financial reports; conducted state banking and HUD examinations; liaised with federal and state regulatory officials; advised on regulatory matters; and, developed procedures to ensure firm compliance with federal and state regulations.
- As Compliance Counsel of a regional mortgage banker, maintained full accountability for daily Compliance Department operations. Supervised all sales practices and regulatory compliance. Liaised with federal and state regulatory officials. Advised branch offices on regulatory matters and developed procedures to ensure firm compliance with federal and state regulations.
- Developed and implemented legal strategies for all aspects of mortgage banking including fraud, identity theft, predatory lending, creditor rights and remedies, debt consolidation and transactional assessments.
- Served as Assistant Counsel, legal servicing for a New York State regional savings bank. Managed all mortgage products that originated and were acquired by various divisions and affiliates. Served as an examiner of the bank's commercial lending, savings and consumer credit departments.
- Assigned and supervised outside counsel to represent bank in litigation, including counsel appearances on property violations and condemnation hearings. Supervised and monitored business activity, including investment guidelines and restriction reviews.
- Received her Juris Doctor Degree from Suffolk University School of Law and Bachelor of Arts Degree from Hunter College.